PURPOSE OF

DOT SLASH

DOTSLASH - root to ideas is a venture by Research Park and students of NIT Surat which aims at encouraging young and enthusiastic minds to code, create and develop unique and eccentric solutions to real life problems.

DOTSLASH is an event which would provide an environment to the developers where they can test their skills , know their true potential and contribute to the society by developing out of the box solutions

A close-up, black and white photograph of a hand typing on a laptop keyboard. The laptop screen is visible, displaying a CSS code snippet. The code includes selectors for 'en.mail' and 'en.phone', with properties for background, display, width, height, float, and margin. The background of the slide features abstract geometric shapes in dark blue, red, and yellow.
